STATEMENT OF FACTS

The parties stipulate that the allegations contained in the first six counts pertaining to Quincy Lamont Brock of the First Superseding Indictment and the following facts are true and correct, and that had this matter gone to trial, the United States would have proven each of these facts beyond a reasonable doubt.

Quincy “Boosie” BROCK was involved in a plan to rob a local drug dealer of drug proceeds. In furtherance of this plan, on August 20, 2021, BROCK, and others conducted surveillance of the location believed to be the drug dealer’s “stash house,” which was an apartment rented by S.H.D., located in the Treesdale Apartments complex in Albemarle County.

Albemarle County is in the Western District of Virginia. Security video from the apartment complex shows BROCK and others conducting surveillance of S.H.D. and her apartment.

On August 20, 2021, at approximately 8:50 p.m., BROCK and others, as they had planned, forced entry in the apartment of S.H.D. One of the co-conspirators held S.H.D. at gunpoint. BROCK took her keys and searched her vehicle. During the robbery, BROCK and others took S.H.D.’s cellphone and other items from her apartment. Brock and the others were armed with a firearm. Security video from the apartment complex shows BROCK entering the apartment, as well as BROCK running back and forth to search S.H.D.’s vehicle.

BROCK and the others returned to a location in Albemarle County. Brock and the others attempted to locate the drug dealer’s stash at the drug dealer’s mother’s residence on Prospect Avenue. Prospect Avenue is located in Charlottesville, which is in the Western District of Virginia. Security video footage then shows BROCK leaving the said location and getting in a vehicle a few minutes after 9:00 p.m. on August 20, 2021. Brock then traveled to Prospect Avenue, where BROCK entered O.B.’s apartment and stole a safe. BROCK and the others were armed and either BROCK or another pointed their firearm at J.H., who was standing outside the apartment. BROCK and the others then fled out the back of the apartment building.

The actions taken by BROCK as described above were taken willfully, knowingly, and with the specific intent to violate the law. BROCK did not take those actions by accident, mistake, or with the belief that he did not violate the law. BROCK acknowledges that the
